July 6, 2025 Communion Service

The world in which Jesus lived was not unlike our world in its confusion of spiritual truth and moral values. People said one thing and did another.

Into this world came Jesus who showed us a different way. He made it possible through his death and resurrection to be at peace with God and to walk a new path. We pause to thank Him this morning. (Pastor Bob Roth 1997)

Not what these hands have done
can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne can make my spirit whole
Not what I feel or do can give me
peace with God;
Not all my prayers, my sighs, my tears, can bear this awful load.
Thy work alone, O Christ, can ease
this weight of sin;
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
can give me peace within

Today's Sermon – “God is Love” Pastor Tom 1 John 4:7 – 5:4

⁷ Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

¹⁰ This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

¹¹ Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

²¹ And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.

^{5:2} This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands.

“Christ taught that love is not for the fulfillment of the self but for the Glory of God and the good of others. True love is selfless. It gives; it sacrifices; it dies to its own needs.” Joshua Harris

Can you do some weeding?
It's easy to tell what shouldn't be growing in our garden.
Consider taking a moment,
throughout the summer, to pull weeds.
