October 4, 2026

Today we have the gift of Celebrating Communion.
Let us rejoice and be grateful and thankful for our salvation.

As two pieces of wax fused together make one so he who receives Holy Communion is so united with Christ that Christ is in him and he is in Christ.

Cyril of Alexandria (412-444)

Ecclesiastes 1:1-18

What do people gain from all their labors at which they toil under the sun? (Eccl. 1:3)

Ecclesiastes 2:1-26

The Meaning Behind the Name Ecclesiastes

Historically, the title Ecclesiastes comes from the Greek root ekklesia, meaning "assembly," and is commonly understood as "the speaker to the assembly." The underlying Hebrew term, Qoheleth, often rendered "Teacher" or "Preacher" carries the sense of someone who gathers people and speaks wisdom to them. That means the voice of Ecclesiastes is public and intentional. The speaker isn't muttering private frustrations into a journal. He's addressing a community that needs instruction for real life. Ecclesiastes speaks like a seasoned guide addressing people who need wisdom for the road, not like a cynic who has given up on the journey.

The Jaffray OFFERING will be our BIG GIVE again this October.

The Jaffray Offering is an opportunity to give toward the ministry and mission of The Alliance across Canada. Pray that God would stir generous, joyful hearts across our churches this October for the Jaffray Offering (our annual missions focus), and that every gift given—large or small—would be multiplied for His glory among people who have never heard the name of Jesus. Pray that people would develop a passion for missions, to go, send, or pray for the least-reached to know Christ.
