From the Ends of the Earth

It sure is hot here in the kingdom. For those of you dear friends and family who are done with winter, this might seem like a strange complaint. I'm already thinking that the rains will come soon and cool everything off. Of course, the streets will flood and there will be more mosquitoes. James 1:2-4 tells us to "be very happy when you are tested in different ways. You know that such testing of your faith produces endurance. Endure until your testing is over. Then you will be mature and complete, and you won't need anything". It has been a good quarter, and here are some stories.

Often the congregation of Tumnap Tek church asks about our work in the Student Residence & Discipling Centre. It was fun to have them all come to TNT church and sing a song for everyone. At least now they have some faces to connect with our stories. We have a fluid group that is always changing. We are so pleased with the opportunity that God has given us to mentor and mold these young people. Remember to pray for them, and for us as we teach and model the way to follow Christ. We had an outreach event in March where the students invited their friends from university to come play some games, sing, and eat. David brought a short devotional. We love that the students give their friends a chance to write out some questions about what they've heard. The Dorm Leader, Theang, had everything planned so well.

When we mentor, we encourage our mentee to find someone to mentor themselves. David was so happy that Lai, one of the guys he mentors, told him that he is mentoring Piseth. Piseth is mentoring Vuy. Please remember to pray for this group of men as they work there way into a closer relationship with each other, but mainly with our Saviour.

In June, we will be flying over to Bangkok to get some regular medical attention. Shortly after we return, we will fly to North America where we plan to see our kids and grandchildren. The flights keep changing, so please pray we will not meet problems. When we are back from that trip, we head for Canadian Team meetings which will lead us right into Cambodia Field Forum. It is going to be a blur right up until August. Lord, give us strength.

A highlight was planning and executing the first missionary convention for the Cambodian national church. They have had three other missionary families, but never toured them or had them report. Proinh & Syma brought their son Barnabas to Phnom Penh to stay with us for a few days before bringing a message and report to TNT church. We provided them with prayer cards and opportunities to address the Men's and Women's groups as well. Join us in praying for this couple as they share Jesus with the Lao people who live in Cambodia.
